SEVENTH DAY

XXVIII Sunday O.T.
Year C

Your faith has saved you; go in peace

The lepers healed by Jesus are ten. Only one receives the healing also in spirit and in soul. Only one passes from the faith in Christ Jesus, doer of mighty deeds, of signs, of miracles, to the faith in Jesus who is Word of eternal life for all those who listen to Him, and also to the faith in Jesus Mediator between the Father and the humanity of every truth, light, grace, eternal life, forgiveness, righteousness, reconciliation, true salvation, true redemption, thanking and blessing. This Samaritan who comes back praising God loudly and who bows down to his feet to thank Him, is thus dismissed by Jesus: "Your faith has saved you; go in peace." What faith has saved him? The faith in his most pure truth of Mediator. The faith in the Word of Jesus. The faith that Jesus is not only the one who heals the body. He is the Person sent by God to heal the soul and the spirit, to heal the heart and the mind, to take away the thoughts according to flesh from our heart and to put the thoughts according to the Holy Spirit in their place. This faith is that giving true salvation.

the many ones. His grace is one among the many ones. His salvation is one among the many ones. Asking the truth of Christ to the one who wants to be of Christ is the thing that one will never have to do. So far, everyone can be of Christ without his truth, his grace, his Word, his Gospel, his light. A Christian without any truth worships a God with no truth, a Christ with no truth, a Holy Spirit with no truth. He lives in a Church with no truth. One receives the sacraments that are with no truth for him. He lives a life with no truth and one also lives death with no truth. Then, however, as soon as he enters the eternity he sees that God is most pure truth, most pure truth is Christ Jesus and the Holy Spirit. Most pure truth is the Church and the sacraments celebrated by her. But by then it is too late to come back. Above all, he sees that also eternity is most pure truth and that the eternity in which they made him believe is only a colossal lie and an enormous falsity.

The submission according to God

The submission according to God is not slavery. It is the greatest, the highest, the fullest, the most perfect freedom, the truest, rather the only true freedom. Why is the submission according to God the true freedom? Because it is most pure obedience to our truth. We are not those who give or create it on our own and we can neither establish it from time to time writing laws of truth for us. Today this is the mistake that is leading man to the vilest, the most obscure and darkest slavery: writing the laws of the truth of man and of things on his own. The truth of every molecule, both spiritual and material existing in the universe, is by creation from the eternal truth of our God and Lord. No matter if the other obeys his truth, every single man is obliged to obey his truth. But man is not in the truth after sin. He is in the falsity. He seeks false freedom in falsity. Today are all the freedom that man invokes for himself and for the others not freedom of falsity, of sin, of death? When one shouts in the squares: "My body, my choice", if the one who shouts says to be a Christian, or affirms to believe in Christ Jesus, must know that he is telling a falsity. The body is not his. The body is of God. God has given it to him so that through it the Lord may continue his work on earth. Almost all the laws of truth that man writes on his own, through which he thinks to teach the utmost freedom, are nothing but laws of slavery and of death. Today one must speak not of civilization of life, of progress, of wealth. Instead, one must speak of barbarism of death, of regress, of universal malaise so far. Our barbarism can neither convey the life in its health anymore, so corrupted by vices its body is. Ours is great barbarism.

The one who can let us turn back into truth is only Christ the Lord.

Only through the work of the Holy Spirit one can remain in the truth, for our life is uninterrupted work of the Holy Spirit and He creates it nourishing us with the Word of Christ Jesus. If the Holy Spirit does not create our true freedom because of our fault, from the freedom in the truth one passes to the slavery of sin and of death. Many are the Christians who have denied the truth. Many are those who are taking a stand of the freedom of death today. Jesus has been obedient to his truth, daily created in Him with no interruptions, until death and to a death of cross. On the cross, nailed to the wood, Jesus lives the supreme truth and the, consequently, the supreme freedom. He made Himself obedient to the Father, annihilating, destroying Himself. His truth was most pure obedience to the Father. Having obeyed until letting himself be nailed on the cross, the submission to his truth has made Him the freest man in the universe. Because of his submission, the Father has raised Him to Lord of heaven and of earth, to Judge of the living and of the dead. He has placed all things in his hands. Heaven and earth are now under his government. Thus Jesus teaches us that the other can cause any damage and any evil to us. However, you, disciple of Jesus, remain in your truth. You remain submitted to your truth. This is the endless difference between a Christian and a non-Christian. The difference is the cross to be submitted, everyone, to one's own truth. May the Mother of God help us. We want to be submitted, as She was submitted to her truth at the feet of the cross.

The other can cause any damage and any evil to us. However, you, disciple of Jesus, remain in your truth. This is the endless difference between a Christian and a non-Christian

IF YOU LISTEN...

Blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus

Saint Elizabeth proclaims blessed the fruit of the womb of the Virgin Mary. Great is the mystery the Son of the Virgin Mary. In Him all the old prophecies about the Messiah of the Lord are fulfilled. What the prophets announced is declared fulfilled today. The Messiah of God is the fruit of the womb of Mary. The Messiah is the Lord of Elizabeth, for God himself and the Son of the Most High. Today the Son of God, the Son of Mary, must be Son of the Apostles, Son of every Christian. Why must he be Son of the Apostles and Son of every Christian? Because they have to generate him in the hearts through the might of the Holy Spirit that works in their spirit and in their soul. An Apostle of Christ Jesus, one of his disciple who does not generate and does not give Christ to other hearts, according to the specific might of Holy Spirit working in him, attests of being a barren womb, a dead womb, dead Apostle, dead Christian. The Apostle is Apostle to generate and give Christ to every heart. The Christian is Christian to generate and give Christ to every heart. If Christ Jesus is not generated and not given, it is sign that one is in the spiritual death.

Then the Word said by the Holy Spirit to the Angel of the Church in Laodicea is fulfilled: "To the angel of the church in Laodicea, write this: " 'The Amen, the faithful and true witness, the source of God's creation, says this: "I know your works; I know that you are neither cold nor hot. I wish you were either cold or hot. So, because you are lukewarm, neither hot nor cold, I will spit you out of my mouth. For you say, 'I am rich and affluent and have no need of anything,' and yet do not realize that you are wretched, pitiable, poor, blind, and naked. I advise you to buy from me gold refined by fire so that you may be rich, and white garments to put on so that your shameful nakedness may not be exposed, and buy ointment to smear on your eyes so that you may see. Those whom I love, I reprove and chastise. Be earnest, therefore, and repent. "Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, (then) I will enter his house and dine with him, and he with me. I will give the victor the right to sit with me on my throne, as I myself first won the victory and sit with my Father on his throne. "Whoever has ears ought to hear what the Spirit says to the churches." (Rev 3,14-22). A disciple of Jesus is rich when he generates Christ in many hearts. When, through Him, the kingdom of God is built on our earth. May the Mother of Jesus intercede so that, through each of his disciple, Jesus be generated and given to every heart. If they do not generate Him, they make the gift of God vain.

If Christ Jesus is not generated and not given, it is sign that one is in the spiritual death

FROM JACOB'S WELL

Today Holy Scripture has been declassified to a book, but it is no longer the Book. Even Christ Jesus has been declassified to teacher, but He is no longer the Teacher of the entire humanity and neither is He the unique and only Redeemer and Saviour. Even the Church has been declassified to a light, but she is no longer the light that must enlighten the nations. With such declassing there is no longer the truth word and the false word. All the words are true and all must be accepted in the Church. Neither is there the true Christ and the false christs. Everyone is true Christ so far and everyone must be accepted as redeemers and saviours of man. Today this is the great confusion that is destroying the Church. This is the universal deluge that is falling down the body of Christ and is depriving every revealed truth of his life.

IN SPIRIT AND TRUTH

Responses of Faith

Can the faith of a man change and can his life remain intact? Or, also: can his faith remain intact and can his life change radically?

When a man changes the faith in his heart, the changed faith demands the change of life. Thus also when life changes, it is sign that there has been a change of thought. Whoever thinks according to God must act according to God. Whoever thinks according to Christ Jesus must also act like Christ Jesus. When the feelings and the thoughts of Christ are taken, also the life must be conform to the life of Christ Jesus. Thought and life are one only thing. Today the cause of the Christian disaster is in the separation between thought and life. One wants the Eucharist, but not the thoughts of Christ Jesus. One wants the sacraments, but not the thoughts of the Father. One wants to be acknowledged as Christian, but without any motion and leading in the wisdom, understanding, science, counsel of the Holy Spirit. Another cause of the Christian disaster is in the separation of the Word written by the will of God. It is no longer the written Word - Old and New Testament - that manifests the will of God. Today the will of God is imagined, thought, built by every single Christian. By now, every single Christian is "confessor" of his particular will of God. But also every single Christian is one who disavows all the divine will revealed by God and handed over to the Sacred Texts.

When the feelings and the thoughts of Christ are taken, also the life must be conform to the life of Christ Jesus. Thought and life are one only thing

Today in the name of God the Holy Scripture is disavowed and one makes it say what it has never said and can never say. Today, having everyone his own belief, his own life, the Church must be as the ark of Noah. All men can enter the Church remaining as they are. Everyone can receive the sacraments. Everyone can profess to be body of Christ. Every thought has the right to enter the Church by now. Only for the thought of Christ Jesus, of the heavenly Father and of the Holy Spirit, there is no longer space in the Church. The thought of Christ Jesus is declared useless to man. Whoever had to propose it, proclaim it, preach it, is a person who harms the body of Christ. The body of Christ cannot be governed by the thought of Christ. It must be a new ark of Noah in which all thoughts have equal dignity. At least one can allow the Gospel the permission of being a thought equal to the other thoughts, with no privilege of uniqueness. The same thing is valid for Christ Jesus. One among the others, one equal to the others. Never one above the others. We have come to the proclamation of equality of all thoughts arising in the heart of man. Only for the thought of Christ there is no longer place in the world.
